BY TELEGRAPH.

Senatorial.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 2.—The ballot for U. S. Senator to-day showed no change in the lock.

Evidence of Outrages.

New Orleans, Feb. 2.—Further evidence was taken by the Congressional Committee to-day on the subject of violence and intimidation. Some of the alleged political murders and outrages, detailed by eye witnesses as occurring during the last campaign, exceed in atrocity anything yet put on record.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 2.—In the Legislature last night a disgraceful scene occurred. Mr. Wolf was ordered by the Speaker to take his seat.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 2.—SENATE.—Penitentiary bill, amended to provide only for the present wants, was passed. It appropriates about $115,000.

New York, Feb. 2.—A four-story brick factory, No. 9 Bradford street, occupied on the fourth floor by John Weir's pulley block manufactory, was burned this morning. The loss is $150,000.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company has received the following advices:
PANAMA, Feb. 2.—The steamship Salvador arrived this morning from San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 2.—The steamship Colorado left for Hong Kong yesterday. The ship Attara arrived here January 30 from Hong Kong via Yokama and Aspinwall. The steamship Acapulco sailed to-day for New York.

THE WELL KNOWN NEGRO COMEDIAN, died suddenly this morning from Bright's disease. He played at Bryant's Wednesday, and went home sick. Since then he could not sleep, and died from exhaustion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The appropriation bills now stand as follows: Legislative, Executive and Judicial bill, reported to the House Dec. 7, and appropriating $19,613,939, is before the House, with Senate amendments thereto, and waiting its action. The Indian appropriation bill, reported Dec. 7, and calling for $4,535,977, has passed the House once, but has been recommitted on the Cherokee amendment.

THE BILL FOR FORTIFICATIONS, amounting to $500,000, is a law. The bill for the Consular and Diplomatic service, reported December 7, and calling for $1,477,788, is a law. The bill for the Military Academy, reported January 15, and calling for $364,740, is awaiting the action of the House. The bill for pensions, reported January 22, calling for $30,000,000, is awaiting the action of the House. The post-office bill, reported January 25, is awaiting the action of the House.

THE TILTON-BEECHER TRIAL.
BROOKLYN, Feb. 2.—Beecher and Tilton and the usual number of their personal friends were present when the court opened. An immense attendance crowded every part of the court-room. An amusing scene occurred at the beginning of the day's proceedings. Evans yesterday gave the case of Count Johannes V. Bennett, during his argument.

THE COUNT WAS PRESENT before the opening of the Court to-day, and announced his purpose of addressing the Court on the subject of his case, as Evans did not report it correctly. When Judge Nelson was seated the Count arose amid laughter and addressed the Court, explaining his case in a style that amused all present and elicited loud laughter and applause.

THE EPISODE OVER TILTON'S EXAMINATION was resumed. He testified to the conversation with Beecher regarding the boy Ralph. Witness asked Beecher to testify before God when the adulteries with Mrs. Tilton began. Beecher said the first connection took place on the 12th of October, 1868.

TILTON'S WIFE AFTERWARD confirmed the statement. Tilton said he was glad that no dishonor was attached to Ralph's birth.

THE CONNECTION then gave a history of his connection with the Woodhull biography, and causes leading him to reside at the Steiny Hall meeting. He said the manuscript of Woodhull's Life was given him by that lady to revise, and not until after she discovered the terrible secret of his life, which he dreaded, did he consent to revise or publish it.

WITNESSES WERE then left to a few days after on my lecturing tour, and with Moulton made a friendly call upon her. It was on account of the publication of her pamphlet, "Tit for Tat," that I relinquished Mrs. Woodhull, and I say here that Henry Ward Beecher is responsible for my intimacy with Mrs. Woodhull.

ON THE EVENING of the lecture in Steiny Hall, I had not contemplated going there and was under no promise to do so. The article "Tit-for-Tat" was brought to my office by some person, and shown to me. I think it was a lady from California who showed it to me. In the first or second week of December, 1871, Beecher came into Moulton's study, when I was present; he asked me if Moulton had conferred with me on my formally returning from the church, and I said he had done so, but that I thought there was no reason I should resign. Beecher said it was reported among the church members that I was a Spiritualist and had forsaken the church.

false thing to require that I should retire from his church on account of my liberal views on religion. I declined to ask for a letter of dismission from the church on that occasion.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—HOUSE.—Continuation of Monday's session.—The House reassembled at 10 o'clock, having taken a recess to that time.

MR. HARRIS, of Va., moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill repealing so much of the act of February 14, 1871, granting pensions to certain sailors and soldiers of the war of 1812, and the widows of deceased soldiers as excluded persons from the benefits of the same for disloyalty during the rebellion. The House refused to second the demand.

MR. BUTLER, of Mass., offered his resolution of yesterday to suspend the rules, so that the Committee on Rules have leave to report forthwith such amendments and changes in rules as they may see fit, and that during the consideration of such a report, no dilatory motion whatever shall be entertained by the speaker. Mr. Spear, of Penn., made the point of order that this was the third time the same proposition had been offered this session.

THE SPEAKER said the language was the same. Mr. Beck, of Kentucky, made a point of order that the gentleman from Massachusetts should not be continuously recognized by Speaker, to the exclusion of other gentlemen.

MR. RANDALL, of Pennsylvania, thought some one else of the House was entitled to it sometimes.

THE SPEAKER replied that that side had always had more than its proportion of time. The gentleman himself had made a similar resolution five times.

MR. RANDALL said it was a right of which the chair could not deprive Mr. Beck, and thought it would not be well to give up the floor exclusively to the gentleman from Massachusetts. The Speaker said the chair desired to repel the idea that the minority was not recognized by the chair in proportion to their number.

THE SPEAKER said the majority had. Mr. Randall moved that the House adjourn. Disagreed to—yeas 88; nays 173. The question was then taken on Butler's proposition, and was rejected—yeas 175; nays 80, two-thirds not voting in the affirmative.

Special to the Star.
GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Jan. 29.—A beast in human form was arrested here to-day and taken to Grand Haven to answer the charge of committing a rape on a child of Mrs. Walker's, at Chester, Ottawa county. His name is Louis Holmes, aged forty-two. His victim is but four years old.

ON THE WAY to the Station-house he seemed very anxious to get away, even offering $50 to the officer to let him go. He was locked up, however, on the charge of malicious destruction, and in the meanwhile the matter of his cutting out the above particular article will be looked after.

his employment, that there seemed to be ill-feeling between the men, from what cause he could not say; that Schilling had on several occasions asked that Rufer be discharged, but not on the last occasion when Rufer was dismissed. He was discharged on Saturday night when the murder was committed. Discharged Rufer because he had no work for him.

Wm. Meyers, appointed in place of Hogan, rejected by the Board at its last meeting, was approved. Several small contracts awarded by the Commissioners were approved.

Police Court Clerks Behind the Bars.
New York, Feb. 2.—An uncommon neat piece of stratagem was resorted to after Court hours this morning by John Bender, Clerk of the Police Court, in order to collect an old debt of $15 from his two Deputy Clerks, John O'Shaughnessy and John O'Sterdorf.

In the usual colloquy that arises there every morning, Mr. Bender remarked to his clerks, and to such as his announcement will be a severe blow. He was the oldest of the three sons of Col. James Taylor, all of whom are well known here. When the bank of Taylor Bros., in Covington, and that of James Taylor & Sons, in Newport, were established, he was assigned to the leading position. He was member of the Board of Examiners of the Public Schools of this city, and ever took a warm interest in education.
